The fever has been checked, how-ever, and while the danger is by no means over, few will now be stricken. WASHINGTON D. C., October 31.-In the House of Representatives to-day the a constitution and State government, and to be admitted into the Union, and it was placed upon the calendar.

Mr. Sayers (Democrat), Texas, chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, reported a resolution authorizing that comed at such times as the chairman may vened at such times as the chairman may order, and it was agreed to.

The bill amendatory of the naturalization laws was then taken up, and Mr. Oates went on with the argument in favor off it which he began yesterday. He suggested several amendments, one of them being that nothing in the bill shall be construed as affecting the property rights of allens.

At 12:50 the Secretary of the Senate appeared at the bar of the House and delivered a message from the Senate announcing the passage of the silver-purchase repeal-bill, with an amendment, in which the concurrence of the House was hushed down, and there was no attempt to continue or repeat it.

The bill was handed up to the Speaker, and laid on his desk, where it was allowed to remain for the tire being.

The discussion of the naturalization bill was resumed, Mr. Oates yielding the five minutes left to him to Mr. Goldzier (Democrat), Indiana. Mr. Campbell (Democrat), served notice that he was opposed to the bill. Mr. Goldzier also served a like notice. From the bottom of his heart he was opposed to the spirit served a like notice. From the bottom of his heart he was opposed to the spirit dictating such a bill. He served notice on the gentleman from Alabama (Mr. Oates) that he, as one of the naturalization citizens of the country, considered himself as good, in every respect, as any man born in the country. The naturalization citizens had well earned for themselves the right to be treated in every respect like all other citizens.

As he stood there he thought of the stream of blood of adopted citizens who died fighting in the cause of liberty. The statements in the report as to the large proportions of foreigners in the almshouses, prisons, and insane asylums he assailed as utterly untrue, and when Mr. Oates tried to interrupt him and to assert their correctness Mr. Gold. and to assert their correctness Mr. Gold-zier declined absolutely to yield. The Speaker: Objection is made. The bill will therefore remain on the Speaker's desk until to-merrow.
At 2 o'clock the House went into Committee of the Whole for consideration of the bankruptcy bill, and so remained until 5:15, when the committee rose, and the House adjourned.

The Senate transacted a good deal of business to-day. Among other things it passed just as it came from the Committee on Commerce, without further amendment, the New York and New Jersey bridge bill. Discussion of this bill and proposed amendments occupied the greater part of the day's session. Mr. Gray moved to take up the House bill to amend the Chinese act of May 5, 1882, so as to make it the "unfinished business." The vote was announced as 24 to 6, but as there was no quorum voting the motion was withdrawn and the Senate proceeded to executive business, Fair was officially closed last night. Though these figures represent the paid admissions during the time allotted by Congress in which the exposition should be kept open, yet it is calculated that at least 1,000,000 more tickets will be purchased before the beautiful White City is destroyed.

When the fair closed Sunday night the total up to that time was 21,28,009. When the receipts were counted last night the total was 21,477,212. The total number of admissions on passes was 2,62,138, making a grand total of 2,522,400.

From the time of its organization to yesterday morning, the exposition has paid out $20,555,85.9t; or three times the amount the managers expected to spend when they commenced work on the fair. The gate receipts during the exposition period proper were a little over $10,000,000. Yesterday $3,200,000 had been collected from concessionaries by Mr. Blackmer's department, and nearly $700,000 had been obtained from that source before he took hold. The returns from concessionaries were one of the big surprises of the fair. Nobody was reckless enough to predict that that sum would be realized. The Paris exposition got but $800,000 from that source, while the Centennial managers, being better traders than the Frenchmen, got $1,500,000.

It is reported that the Riffians in great force were attempting yesterday to throw up entrenchments one third of a mile distant from Fort Cammeilos. They worked under a heavy fire from the fort. clear, crisp, autumn air induced another day. The entries were first class as regards both quality and quantity, and the sport was exciting in many events. The Wah Jim, Rival, and Defargilla to face the starter. They were preferred in the order named. Wah Jim rushed to the front in his usual style, and was never headed. Defargilla, the outsider, easily beat Rival for the place.

The second race was a good betting affair, Candelabra and Stockton being well-backed choices. Candelabra won handlily by two lengths from Stockton.

The third race was a scramble for 2-year-olds, Drum Major, Economist, and Trinculo were the choices, but none of them was ever prominent. Factorum, a lo-to-1 chance, won from flag-fail to finish, and Nahma, 12 to 1, beat Oporto, 15 to 1, for the place.

The talent regained a little of their lost coin by backing Shelly Tuttle of the favor. the boards in the fourth race. The favor-

He waited too long and Prendergast was told to go ahead Frank said that he knew Mayor Harrison's slayer well, and that General Russell was the "head man of the society."
